Keynotes

Special Education as a Mental Health Intervention: Lessons from Half a Century

Dr. Steve Forness is Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences at UCLA. He initially attended the U.S. Naval Academy, but received his B.A. and M.A. from University of Northern Colorado and his Ed.D. from UCLA. A faculty member of the UCLA Neuropsychiatric Hospital, he was also principal of its hospital school and chief of educational psychology services. Dr. Forness has co-authored or co-edited 10 books on children with learning or behavioral disorders and published more than 200 journal articles on special education and early detection of children with psychiatric disorders. He was a Fulbright Scholar in Portugal and has received the Wallin Award from the Council for Exceptional Children and the Berman Award from the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

CCBD Turns 50: Many Miles Covered and Still on the Move

Dr. Colvin draws on his experience as a classroom teacher, in both special and general education, and as a school administrator, educational consultant, author, and research associate and instructor at the University of Oregon. He is a nationally and internationally recognized educational and behavioral consultant who has assisted educators in more than 200 school districts, Universities, and agencies on the subjects of managing problem behavior, teaching challenging students, assessment, instruction and school safety planning. Dr. Colvin has authored and co-authored more than 80 publications, including a best seller book Managing the Cycle of Acting-Out Behavior in the Classroom and the 2000 Telly Award winning video program Defusing Anger and Aggression.

The Healing Power of Humor

Dr. Stuart Robertshaw received his Bachelors degree in Education from MacMurray College in 1965, his Masters degree in Psychology from Illinois State University in 1968, his Doctorate in Special Education from the University of Kansas in 1971 and his law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law

School in 1978. From 1971 until 1998, he was a professor of Psychology and Special Education at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. In June of 1998, he retired from the University to assume full time responsibilities as President and CEO of the National Association for the Humor Impaired.

Your Invitation

The Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders (CCBD) is pleased to present its 9th Biennial International Conference on "Facing the Future - Building on the Past". This transdisciplinary forum is specifically designed to strengthen the bridge between the professional services for children and youth in educational, mental health and juvenile justice settings.

All who provide direct or indirect services to students with challenging behavior can learn more effective and efficient ways to ensure quality services are available to meet the complex needs of these youths.

Highlights of this year's conference program include:

- Workshops: these in-depth sessions are designed to provide training to enable application of new skills
- Topical Strands: these sessions offer a scope and sequence of presentations that focus on a specific topic, e.g. assessment, classroom management, instruction, mental health, PBIS,
- Invited sessions: these feature presentations by leading researchers and practitioners in the field
- International presentations: learn what professionals from a variety of countries are reporting
- Exhibit Show: will be open Friday at 8:00 am through Saturday at 3:15 pm
- Networking opportunities to develop new and renew relationships with colleagues.

Weather & Location

September is a great month to visit New Orleans. The average temperatures range from a high of 86°F to a low of 70°F. All conference activities will take place at the InterContinental New Orleans. The hotel enjoys one of the city’s most coveted locations: two blocks from the French Quarter, four blocks from Harrah’s New Orleans, and six blocks from the riverfront.

Guests Arriving via the New Orleans Airport

A one-way cab ride from the airport is approximately $30 for two people. The “Airport Shuttle” has continuous service to and from downtown hotels for $15 each way (reservations may be made through the hotel Concierge).

Continuing Education Credits

Certificates of clock-hour participation for up to 22 hours (Thursday, Friday, Saturday) will be provided. Participants may register onsite for university credit for an additional fee through University of Northern Colorado. Please contact us for more information.

Accessibility

Please contact us by September 1, 2011 if you have any special needs.

Program Information

Program books will not be mailed out prior to the conference. On-site registration will open Wednesday, Sept. 21, at 7 pm. Check our Web site (www.behavioralinstitute.org/ccbd.htm) for additional program information and updates.

Registration Includes:

Your registration fee entitles you to conference sessions, program, attendance certificate, continental breakfasts, refreshment breaks, Friday & Saturday lunch, and admittance to the Thursday welcome dinner reception.

About CCBD:

The Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders is the official division of the Council for Exceptional Children committed to promoting and facilitating the education and general welfare of children and youth with emotional and behavioral disorders. The goals of CCBD include:

- To promote quality educational services and programs for persons with emotional or behavioral disorders.
- To advocate for the needs of children and youth with emotional or behavioral disorders and their families.
- To encourage research and professional growth as vehicles for better understanding of emotional or behavioral disorders.
- To disseminate relevant and timely information through professional meetings, training programs, publications, and other media.
- To provide professional support for persons who are involved with and serve children and youth with emotional or behavioral disorders.
- To engage in efforts to reduce racial, cultural and gender over-representation among children and youth with emotional or behavioral disorders.
- To promote awareness and advocacy for children and youth with emotional or behavioral disorders from diverse backgrounds that foster collaborative relationships among families and professionals.
